We are blessed to have many new faces at JUMC! As we update our church directory, we would love to include photos of everyone. Please email your individual photo to umcjefferson@gmail.com. If you'd like, feel free to also share a photo of your family together. If you need a photo taken, please let Ashley know or take advantage of the free portrait offer below.

Our church nursery is available for children in kindergarten and under. Loving care is provided so you can enjoy the service worry-free!

In Preparation for Worship

As we move deeper into the season after Epiphany, we will continue to consider the glory God reveals among us. During this important time of year, the time that bridges Epiphany and Lent we often emphasize Jesus as the revelation of God's glory. However, as we talked about last week, God's glory is also revealed through God's people - the church. This week we will look at another of Isaiah's servant songs that can describe Jesus but can also describe the church.

As you prepare for Sunday, think about all the many ways you see God's glory revealed through the people of Jefferson UMC. Consider the ministries of nurture that care for those within the fellowship through cards, calls and visits. Consider the ministries of mercy and outreach within the fellowship and the community: hot meals, groceries, Christmas gifts and emergency funds for heat, electricity, and medicine to name only a few. Consider our ministries of worship and discipleship: choir, bells, Sunday school, small groups, midday prayer and devotion and other special services and studies throughout the year. God's glory is revealed in numerous ways through this congregation.

On Sunday we will focus on Isaiah 49:1-7. The sermon title is "Give You As a Light." In this "servant song" we are invited to consider how God reveals glory through us, God's servants - individually and collectively. I look forward to worshipping with you.

See you Sunday,
Kristy

Who Are These People??

Jefferson United Methodist is a nice blend of families with long roots in the community and folks who are relatively new. It is always nice to learn a little about each other. The plan is to take a family or 2 each week and get to know our fellow church people a little better. When you see the Church Historian coming your way for a brief interview it might be your time in the spotlight!

Our first family to meet is our pastor Kristy and her husband Dewayne Burnette. Kristy was born and raised in Canton, NC and worked in real estate for a while. She finally accepted the call into ministry and graduated from Pfeiffer University and then Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, NC. JUMC is her 5th appointment as a Methodist minister. Dewayne is also from Canton, NC, and after serving in the Air Force for 12 years he worked as a long haul trucker. His current passion is building custom wagons. Kristy and Dewayne were married in 1999 and they have 2 children, Gary and wife Tracey who live in Phoenix, and Kacey and husband Anthony (and Jack) who live in San Diego. Kristy and Dewayne are animal lovers and have dogs Gladys and Sammy and cats Ethel and Lucy.

Kristy and Dewayne are very happy to be in Jefferson and feel that it is a blessing to serve at JUMC.

WILKES COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Where Faith Inspires

We give thanks for the dedication & determination shown by the young people in our church family. Through commitment, curiosity, and hard work, they continue to grow and prepare for the paths God is placing before them. Today, we are especially proud to celebrate Alyssa Horton, whose academic drive and passion for learning reflect both as Scripture reminds us, perseverance and purpose. “Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established” (Proverbs 16:3). We look forward with gratitude and excitement to all that lies ahead as she continues to use her gifts to make a difference in the world.

We are also excited to celebrate Layla Roop, daughter of Heath & Chelsea Roop and her recent accomplishments at the Ultimate Dance Tour! Layla competed her solo for the first time this season and earned a Platinum award, an Ultimate Buzzer, and placed 6th Overall in the Title competition. It was a weekend filled with long days, late nights, and lots of hard work—but also plenty of joy and fun. We are so proud of Layla and the dedication of all the dancers who shared in this wonderful experience.
